We envision a world where gender-based violence is unacceptable; where perpetrators are held accountable, and victims receive the compassion, support, and justice they deserve.

MISSION STATEMENT
We inspire and educate those who respond to gender-based violence, equipping them with the knowledge and tools they need to support victims and hold perpetrators accountable. We promote victim-centered, multi-disciplinary collaboration, which strengthens the response of the criminal justice system, other professionals, allies, and the general public -- making communities safer.

Quotes from Conference Attendees

“‘It is more than professional, it is personal! This training has taught me to look at relationships and victims differently. I will never again judge or question a victim; or a friend.’”
– Law Enforcement

“‘EVAWI is by far the most in-depth conference I have attended with a wide variety of workshop subjects. The intensity and impact of the conference as a whole, keeps me grounded and reminds me of why I am in the field. It is wonderful to know there are others out there doing the same work as myself.’”
– Victim Advocate

“‘It has provided me new information on handling domestic violence issues. The training has provided multiple perspectives in understanding how victims report crimes.’”
– Judge

“I attended the 2014 conference and found all the information extremely helpful getting me up to speed with sex assault investigations and finding out about all the resources available that I was not aware of before the conference.”
– Law Enforcement

“This training helped me to realize to change the perspective in evaluating certain sexual assault cases. Instead of doing a victim-focused investigation, try a defendant-centered investigation.”
– Prosecutors
